APPLICATION FORM

This award recognizes an AIBL student chapter member who exhibits the qualities of a true leader in providing guidance and direction to other AIBL students. His/her peers must view this person as a leader. An AIBL Student Leader of the Year Award will be given to a high school student, tribal college student, and university AIBL Student.

The person who is selected as "AIBL Student Leader of the Year will receive:

- A one hundred dollar ($100.00) Scholarship Award
- An "AIBL Student Leader of the Year" Trophy
- Leadership Conference Awards Banquet Recognition
- National Recognition on aibl.org

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. A letter of nomination written and signed by AIBL Chapter member(s) and advisor.
2. A brief biography (no more than two pages) listing the activities of the nominee, including their achievements, awards, and accomplishments. These activities must demonstrate how the nominee's leadership has impacted AIBL student activities and the AIBL program as a whole.
3. Chapters are welcome to submit additional information such as letters of support, news clippings, and photos as desired. All information submitted should be presented in a neat, organized, and professional manner.
4. All applications become the property of AIBL, and will be stored in the AIBL archives after they have been reviewed. A review committee appointed by the AIBL Board of Directors, with final approval by the Board of Directors, will judge applications. Chapters will be notified of application deadlines and award winners.
